

FUTURE LEADERS PROGRAM

Develop the leader within - so you can effectively lead others.

You got promoted because you were good at the work.
Nobody mentioned the job would change completely.

A practical, high-impact program for new and emerging leaders ready to grow their self-awareness, emotional intelligence and effectiveness — because leading others starts with leading yourself.

Why This Program?

Most new leaders are handed a title and left to work it out. So they default to what they know: doing the work themselves, avoiding the awkward conversation, staying busy because busy feels like progress. The skills that earned the promotion aren't the ones the role now needs.

The first step in leadership isn't managing people — it's mastering your own mindset, energy and behaviour. This program helps new and aspiring leaders:

- ▶ Understand who they are and how they show up under pressure
- ▶ Strengthen emotional intelligence and resilience
- ▶ Communicate and listen with intention
- ▶ Build accountability and a leadership mindset that sticks

“Because leading others starts with leading yourself.”

SECURE YOUR SEAT

WHAT — LEADING SELF

Know Yourself — The Authentic Leader

- ▶ Use your DiSC Assessment to uncover your natural style, strengths and blind spots
- ▶ Discover what “balance” looks like for you, and how self-awareness drives better decisions

Strengthen Your Core

- ▶ Resilience, emotional intelligence and mindset
- ▶ Maintain focus under pressure, hold boundaries, and shift your mindset when it counts

Communicate With Intention

- ▶ Great communication begins with listening
- ▶ Develop active listening and emotional intelligence to build trust and connection

Taking Ownership

- ▶ Accountability and reflection — from intention and procrastination to action
- ▶ Build habits of accountability and self-reflection that keep you learning and improving

Develop Your System

- ▶ Become consistent by creating a system built on balance, planning and goal setting
